As required by Bob Jones Press, the statement below will be sent to them when we order the tests.

Proof of home schooling is required before any test may be shipped. Since the State of Texas does not give a verification documentation of home schooling, the following statement will be used for verification. Your order will not be processed without this signed statement. (required by BJU Press)

I hereby certify that I have met all of my state's requirements for home schooling and am currently recognized by my state as a home schooling parent. The test(s) currently being ordered is/are for my home schooled child(ren). I further certify that the test(s) is/are in no way being used for the purpose of preparing my child(ren) or practicing for a later administration of the same or similar test in any public or private school. I agree to maintain full security of the testing materials and not discuss test content with any other parent or with any child(ren), including my child(ren). I understand that my signature below is legally binding.
