PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

This is an agreement between Home Run Ministries Inc. and the participating home school family listed below. Participants in Home Run Ministries understand and agree with the statements of faith and conduct found on the Home Run Ministries website.

Initial each applicable blank below:

_____ This is to certify that our family is home schooling in accordance with the home school laws for the state of Texas. The Texas law states that Home Schools are considered private schools. To maintain the status of a home school you must be teaching reading, grammar, spelling, math, and good citizenship in a bona fide manner.

_____ We have read the Home Run Ministries' Statement of Faith and understand that all Home Run Ministries' teachings will follow this statement of faith. However, we understand that other ideas and faiths may be discussed in Home Run Ministries' classes.

Initial the statements for the programs in which you are registering:

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

_____ We have read the Academic Program description and the standards of excellence for academics and conduct. We support these standards and will ensure that our students understand and follow the standards of excellence while attending classes at Home Run.

_____ Furthermore, we understand that for the Academic Program we are responsible to supervise our student's home study so that they complete their assignments properly and on time. It is understood that our student attends the academic classes of Home Run Ministries a maximum of two days each week and that assignments are to be completed outside of class time.

SUPER FRIDAY

_____ We have read the standards for Super Friday and we agree to support these standards and ensure that our children understand and follow the standards while attending Super Friday.

In order for a family to register and participate in any programs sponsored by Home Run Ministries, this signed document must be on file with the ministry's office.
