

Mrs. Griswold holds Bachelors of Science in Education and Mathematics from Houston Baptist University. She taught first grade in public schools, both coordinated as well as taught in her church nursery for over twenty years, has been a VBS teacher and director, an AWANA leader and director, and the sponsor of both CHATA (a home school service organization) and the Epsilon chapter of Eta Sigma Alpha National Home School Honor Society. She home schooled her three children through high school. She became the Academic Dean of Home Run Ministries in the fall of 2015.