

Ann Jackson joined the Home Run Ministries faculty in the fall of 2015 teaching English 3/4. Having earned a B.S. in Secondary Education (major in English, minor in journalism) and an M.Ed. in Supervision/Administration from Louisiana State University, she taught all levels of English in Louisiana and in Crosby, TX, where she also served as Department Chair and English Vertical Team Leader. For over 25 years, she presented College Board teacher training workshops in Pre-AP and AP (Advanced Placement) throughout the United States.