

June Van Kampen has been serving the homeschool community as receptionist for the HRM academic programs for over five years. She loves meeting people and connecting with the HRM parents and students. June also serves our community at large as a polling judge.