

Ms. Sargent earned her Bachelor of Science in Education from Indiana University with a minor in reading instruction and special education. She taught third grade in Indiana before moving to Texas. She has enjoyed homeschooling her two sons. She is actively involved in her church, teaching there as well. Her passions include family, missions, kids, and fulfilling God's plan.