

Mrs. Byrd has a BA in English and German from the University of Houston. She taught English at the middle school and high school levels at a Christian school before having children. She taught English I and II at Home Run Ministries in the early 2000's. Mrs. Byrd has homeschooled her two daughters in all subjects from preschool through high school. She has actively served the homeschool community since 2004, including teaching many classes at Super Friday. She has a passion for teaching and a love for homeschooling families. Nancy Byrd and her husband Dan are members of Woodridge Baptist Church.
