

Mrs. Sitton earned her BS in Elementary Education from Baylor University. She has experience as both a 4th grade teacher and math specialist in the public-school setting. She is mom to five incredible children and enjoys homeschooling her two oldest who attend classes at HRM. She is looking forward to sharing her love of math with her students this year at HRM.