

Scholarships from Home Run Ministries are awarded as available from the ministry's scholarship fund. Our general practice is to scholarship up to 50% of tuition costs; however, the Executive Director, Financial Director, and Program Director will evaluate each application on a case-by-case basis. Any information shared is held in strict confidence, and we prayerfully consider each application.

Scholarship funds are received from:

- Personal donations from individuals and local companies
- Secondary Academy hot lunches
- Kingwood Homeschool Formals
- Tikiz SnoCone Truck
- Kroger Community Rewards
- Selling used books
- Super Friday Fun Run
- Profit from standardized testing and HRM Writing Boot Camp
- Box Tops program
